

Definitions

Policies-Plans, rules or ways of acting that govern certain areas of function within an organization. The “Why” and “What” of a function, the reasons we do what we do.

Procedures-A step-by-step, orderly, detailed process outlined for the completion of a task. The “How” of a function, the clear, sequential way to go about doing what needs to be done.